

Miss Jenna began dancing at Dance Express at the age of 4. She was a Dance Express company member for 9 years. Jenna continued her dance training and attended Rhode Island College, where she had the opportunity to work with many talented artists. In 2008, Jenna graduated from RIC with a bachelor's degree in Dance Performance. Jenna also danced with a Hartford based professional contemporary dance company "Dance Connect", where she has performed in numerous shows around Connecticut. Jenna's choreography has been performed in CT, RI and MA where it has won many different high point awards, which also included a young choreographer award. She loves sharing her passion and creativity of Dance with each of her students and is thrilled to be celebrating her 23rd year at Dance Express.
